VALDEK

FREE DURING PILOT

YOUR AI BACK OFFICE.

It watches every job, drafts the tags and notices, checks them against your contract and chases what is unsigned. A person approves everything.

Three steps, done before you leave the floor

1

SAY IT

Tell Valdek what happened, typed or dictated. It drafts the tag with your labor rates, the materials and a clean description, and points out what a GC could push back on.

2

SIGN IT

Hand the GC your phone or text a private link. They sign with a finger. Once signed, the tag locks so nobody can change it later.

3

GET PAID

Download a clean one-page PDF for the change order request. The office sees what is signed, what is waiting, and what has been billed.

Built for small commercial subcontractors

Electrical, mechanical, plumbing, drywall, fire protection: any trade where the GC says "just take care of it" and the paperwork is supposed to follow. The foreman writes the tag on site from the phone already in their pocket. The owner or office sees every project's extras and bills from them.

On every tag

- Labor by classification, at the rates you set once
- Materials with quantities, estimated costs clearly marked
- Your markup on labor and materials
- Who directed the work, where, and when
- Photos from the phone camera
- The GC's signature, name and timestamp

Why the same day matters

Extra work gets disputed when it is written up weeks later from memory. A tag signed on the spot records who asked, what was done and what it cost.

TIME & MATERIAL TAG

Northside Electric 1001

Relocate 3 outlets for revised casework

Directed by Mike Alvarez, Coastline Builders · Room 210

Journeyman, 2 x 3 hrs	$510.00
3 ea 4in square box with ring	$19.20
40 ft 12/2 MC cable	$50.00
Markup (15%)	$86.88
Total	$666.08

SIGNED by Mike Alvarez in person. Locked.

Sample tag from the demo. Company and names are made up.

For the office

- The AI drafts and checks. You approve.
- Is this extra? Your scope answers.
- Find my lost money on a finished job
- Counts down your notice deadlines

See it with a real-looking job

The demo needs no sign-up. Open it on your phone.

getvaldek.vercel.app/demo

Sign up: getvaldek.vercel.app/signup